Biographical Sketch:

Ms. Giddings has volunteered her time to the Michigan Committee on Juvenile Justice for the past two years. She currently volunteers at the Adrian Training School as a mentor and assisted in developing the Baby Think It Over program. Ms. Giddings has personal experience with both the foster care and juvenile justice systems and is able to bring a unique perspective the Committee. She is particularly interested in reintegration/reentry issues facing youth as they leave the system. Ms. Giddings is a wife and mother of three children.
